

In order to the celebration of 74th Independence day and the 145th anniversary of national Museum the Department of national Museums has organized an exclusive exhibition

“Unseen Heritage”

open for the public since 03

rd

February 2022.....

The following objects such as; fragments of lunar rocks obtained by man crossing the moon, the clay cascade found from Neelagiri Chetiya in Ampara district contains very rare gold, glasses, crystals and paintings , the forehead band suppose used by prince Weediya Bandara, rare gold coins used in Sri Lanka, the grinding stone found at Balangoda Bellanbendipalassa which pre historic man (Balangoda man) used before 12000 years ago, a whistle made of a human bone found from South Asia used by a Sri Lankan pre historic man 12000 years ago and a jewellery box with ivory carvings made of ebony are displaying at this exhibition .

{besps}/News/2017/November{/besps}