

It was decided to start with the concept of a 'Good cultural of righteous farming' to avert the possible food crisis in Sri Lanka in the future. According to the island-wide cultivation project, the Department of National Museums has initiated 'Good culture from righteous farming project' on Thursday 23rd June 2022, at the Colombo National Museum premises under the patronage of Hon. Vidura Wickramanayaka, Minister of Buddhasasana Religious and Cultural Affairs with the participation of Mr. Somarathna Vidanapathirana Secretary to the Ministry of Buddhasasana Religious and Cultural Affairs.