

Ancient Swords, Daggers & Knives in Sri Lankan Museums

By

P.H.D.H.DE SILVA

S. WICKRAMASINGHE

A Sri Lanka National Museums Publication

CONTENTS

				Page
Foreword	i
Authors Preface	ii
PART I
Chapter	1. Introduction	1
Chapter	2. Pre and Protohistoric Evidence	4
Chapter	3. Evidence from Primary Literary Sources	11
Chapter	4. Traditional Iron and Steel Industry	13
Chapter	5. Foreign Invasions to Sri Lanka	21
Chapter	6. Enlisting of Mercenaries by Sinhalese Kings	26
Chapter	7. Sword Types and daggers from Literary Sources	31
PART II
Sri Lankan Swords, Sword sticks, Daggers and Knives
Chapter	8. Anurādhapura Period (437 B. C. to 1070 A. C.)	39
Chapter	9. Polonnaruwa Period (1070 A. C. to 1236 A. C.)	66
Chapter	10. Kōtté Period (1415 A.C. to 1597 A. C.)	100
Chapter	11. Kandy Period (1597 A. C. to 1815 A. C.)	121
	(i) Royal Swords and Royal waist knife
	(ii) Adigar Āhīlēpola's sword
	(iii) Kasthāné and Ceremonial swords
	(iv) Other swords, sword sticks, daggers and knives including Adigar Kāppitipola's dagger
PART III
Foreign swords, sword sticks, daggers and knives in Sri Lankan Museums
Chapter	12. The Indian and Nepalese Collections	231
Chapter	13. The Maldivian and Persian Collections	281
Chapter	14. The Malayan and Indonesian Collections	293
Chapter	15. The Japanese Collection	343
Chapter	16. The Portuguese Collection	347
Chapter	17. The Dutch Collection	358
Chapter	18. Other Foreign Edged Weapons	398
APPENDIX
	I. "A 16 - 17th Century Ritual Sword" by Anandalaḷ Nanayakkara	431
	II. "Ancient Sword fragment and two daggers" by the Authors...	436
Acknowledgments	439
References to Literature	441
Subject Index	448